W. R. Morley, Chief Engineer of mings. the western division of the Atchison, in town this morning and will depart Miller. by Monday's stage for Guaymas, where he will supervise the construction of the above road from that point. Previous to leaving San Francisco he shipped a vessel of supplies to Guay mas and an English vessel is expected to arrive at that port with a cargo of rails. It is thought that connection with the New Mexico division will be made in about six months and the entire line be open to travel. It is the desire of this road to preserve the best of feelings with the Mexican Government and will do all in their favor to prevent any filibustering.
